R. K. Redding Construction Team Wins Numerous Safety Awards from the Georgia Chapter of The Associated General Contractors of America, Inc.

BREMEN, Ga. (May 1, 2014) – R. K. Redding Construction (RKR), a full service, multi-disciplinary construction management and general construction contracting firm, had five of its supervisors receive the prestigious Ron Amerson Supervisors' Safety Award from the AGC Georgia, the statewide Chapter of The Associated General Contractors of America, Inc. (AGC of America) at its 18th annual award ceremony.

The following RKR Supervisors were honored (and met the requirements of zero accidents and a minimum number of man-hours supervised in 2013):

- Tyler Eley
- Jim Millsap
- Doug Rooks
- Jason Rooks
- Spencer Sheffield

"It is an honor to have so many of our outstanding supervisors recognized by the AGC," said Randall Redding, President/CEO of RKR. "It reflects positively on our entire organization and shines a spotlight on the importance of workplace safety."

The Ron Amerson Supervisors' Safety Awards program is designed to recognize AGC of America members' supervisors for outstanding contributions to safety on their jobsites. The measurement criterion is based on safety incidence rates for individual supervisors in conjunction with actual man-hours directly supervised by each employee. Only those supervisors who showed a commitment to outstanding safety are eligible.
